

e-days will inspire meetings and events in Madrid

e-days – the event show, the annual meeting point for the meetings and events market will bring together for the third consecutive year, professionals, agencies, suppliers and companies from Spain and Portugal at the Palacio de Deportes in Madrid on 8th and 9th of July.

In e-days 2009, one can walk over interactive floors, have a cocktail on an ice bar, discover LED screens and surprising entertainment, lasers and high quality projection, find adrenaline activities, the latest technologies and trends meetings, incentives, congresses, conventions, product promotions,...

Apart from being the meeting point for professionals, e-days offer high quality educational sessions with renowned internacional gurus from the event industry and an exhibition area where only companies offering original services and products are present.

In 2008, e-days were held in Barcelona with the support of the city hall – Ayuntamiento de Barcelona, and all the main associations from the sector. There were also 3,400 visitors and 129 exhibitors in 8,000m2 exhibition space. About 5,000 visitors will be expected in this event.

As per the previous years, e-days 2009 coincides with the fourth edition of the Gala of the awards presentation of the Premios eventoplus, which give recognition to the best events and practices of companies in Spain and Portugal.
